Post Mortem On Dead Canines.

To every man is given his troubles, his worries, toils and vexations of spirit. He may be embroiled with his next door neighbor over the encroachments of the latter's chickens on his favorite radish bed. He may arise in the middle of the night, and execute a solo cake walk on a cold oil cloth floor with his fretting child in his arms and the latter's hands in his hair.

But when a man is driven to furnish himself with a spade and exhume all the moribund canines which that dead shot, Marshal J. H. Dye, has gotten the drop on in the past week, then that man's tribulations exceed those of any common mortal.

Mr. "Horney" Geren has been engaged in searching for the carcass of a dog which disappeared from his happy home several days ago and has not been seen since. The little pet wore a bell around its neck and that is the means of identification Mr. Geren is seeking in his post mortem examination.

Chicago.

By Associated Press.

Chicago, June 19.—Every one of the thousand stalls at Washington Park is occupied or engaged for horses for the season of racing which will terminate July 20. Several of the American Derby candidates worked today.

The indications are that there will be at least a dozen starters in the Derby of whom the following with their weights and jockeys respectively, are counted as "sure": Terminus 122; Colburn; His Eminence, 127; O'Don; Bonibert, 127; Bullman; The Parader, 127; Landry; Sadie S., 117; Slack; Beau Gallant, 122; M. Daly; Outlander, 122; Spencer; Silverdale, 127; J. Woods; Lady Schorr, 117; J. Miller; Robert Waddell, 119; Dominick; Water Color, 122; F. Littlefield; Herando, 127; Winkfield; Sannazarra, 122; J. Boland.

Among the probable starters are: Operator, 122; J. Matthews; Alfonso, 122; Six Shooter, 122; T. Knight.

The management is confident the attendance Saturday will eclipse the record of 45,000 made in 1892.

"Nothing can possibly interfere with the Derby," said Secretary James Howard. "The action of the courts in suppressing gambling at Harlem can have no effect on the Derby, for the reason that the club long ago decided not to tolerate open betting. Of course if two people wish to bet on a race it would be difficult for any one to stop them. As to transferring the event to Louisville, I can only say the matter has never been dignified by serious conditions."

Six furlongs: Times Star, first; Frank Fellows, second; Bettie R., third. Time, 1:15.

Mile: Outburst, first; Baffled, second; Nekarnish, third. Time, 1:41.

Parkersburg Races.

A fine day's sport is again reported from the Parkersburg race track where some of the best horses in this section have been furnishing entertainment to thousands. The attendance has been large and the receipts to the club will undoubtedly be large. The purses are about the usual amount, but when all expenses are deducted the first meet of the association should prove profitable to the local club.

Thursday's events were witnessed by a liberal delegation of Marietta sports. Some tipped the winners for $300 to $400 to the good, while others went broke on their favorites.

Most of the Parkersburg speeders will come here for the races next week. With the splendid track and good weather the Marietta races ought to be fully as successful as those of her sister city. Up to last evening the entries had reached 105 and a number more were expected by the local committee. Members of the Marietta
